

Applied Design Thinking in Social Services

Applied Design Thinking in Social Services

The module introduces social systems into Design Thinking with the following principles:

- No single optimal solution, multiple possible solutions
- Networks create productive conversations
- Efficiency is balanced with adaptability
- Local decision-making more successful

www.ict4compliance.com

