

Project Proposal Writing

Project Proposal Writing

- Drafting project proposals and documents require understanding between the project organization, donors, beneficiaries, and regulators or monitors.
- The training provides a compliance checklist of project proposal writing with international goals and reporting indicators.
- Project proposal writing training transfers findings and contents of Theory of Change and Logical Framework to the project document and reflects the required management and institutional set-up.