

Theory of Change

compliance

Theory of Change

- The module introduces the Theory of Change as a methodology for planning, participation, and evaluation.
- A diagram is proposed with a narrative represent the development process. The process entails identifying baseline issues and problems, offering solutions and mitigation measures, setting objectives, anticipating results, and monitoring impacts.

